RUBBISH TIP PLAN HIT BY SOCIETY

Williamstown conservationists have asked Altona Council to abandon its plans to use the former Truganina explosives reserve as a tip site.

In a letter to council the executive and members of the Williamstown Conservation and Planning Society suggested that serious consideration be given to retaining the reserve as a natural foreshore recreational area at a time when "many such natural areas on bayside fronts are quickly disappearing".

The society believes that with the extensive industrial and residential development planned for the western suburbs in the future, an area such as the reserve would provide a necessary recreation zone, unique in Melbourne.

In its letter to council the society said its members were seriously concerned with the conditions under which Altona Council conducted its tipping and land fill activities adjacent to The Pines scout camp.

The society said it had noticed that council had built a fence at approximately high water level on the foreshore of this area, and was filling the foreshore with rubbish and low grade filling right to this fence.

"Our society respectfully submits that it considers this activity detrimental to and contrary to current enlightened trends in foreshore development," the writer of the letter said.

Replying to the letter, at a recent general purposes committee meeting, City Engineer Mr. Ralph Simmons said the site of the explosives reserve was not a "natural foreshore area" but in fact, a desolate, low lying sandy area, generally devoid of vegetation.

Mr. Simmons recommended that the society be advised that council had spent many hours planning what should be done with the explosives reserve.

"For many years it was used for the storage of explosives," he said.

"In this connection there were many small brick buildings surrounded by earthern embankments with railway lines connecting them."

Mr. Simmons continued: "In order that the beach to the west of the Truganina outlet channel can be reached by the public generally, and by further residents in the Altona Meadows area, it is proposed to fill approximately 20 acres of land, having frontage to the foreshore of 700 feet, by controlled tipping.

"South and west of the explosives reserve area is an area of approximately 1000 acres zoned as proposed public open space," said Mr. Simmons.

Following the recommendation by Mr. Simmons, Cr. Ian Stewart moved that the letter from the society be noted.

His motion was seconded by Cr. Pat Burns.

Athletes' track is in the news

The 75-acre sporting complex which is being prepared north of Altona Youth Club, by Altona Council was recently mentioned in "Kalori" the official journal of the Victorian Little Athletics Association.

The item in the newspaper read: "A magnificent 75-acre sporting complex, being built around athletics, hockey, cricket and football, with little athletics claiming the spotlight, is taking place at Altona.

"Designed by the city engineer, Ralph Simmons, and approved by the council, it will become the home of the Altona Little Althetics Centre.

"Centre president, Cr. Ray Richards, believes that it will be one of the best centres in the State when it is finished.

"For the third year in succession, Altona North Club has taken off the prize as the champion club at the centre followed by St. Mary's and Westona.

"Altona North also had the champion centre girl and runner-up, Annette Thompson and Janine Lokaj.

"Champion boy was Stephen Smith from Westona, followed by Paul Curran, St. Mary's."

These Altona State School girls broke the State record in the Under 13 freestyle relay championship at the interschools' annual sports.

The girls are (from top to bottom) Kerri Findlay, 11, Maree White, 11, Donna Williams, 11, and Andrea Willis, 10.

Last week, the girls were invited to the Altona Council meeting, where they were presented with certificates of merit by the Mayor, Cr. Pat Lynch.

STAR GAZE

Shame on us — we neglected to mention that Keith Neyland of Keima Press, was also awarded a LOGOA award by Jim Waters before he left Altona. Keith was praised for his work in the local newspaper and printing field, and mention was made of a public relations card recently printed for the council by Keith.

★ ★ ★

Local drinker is irate about the fact that he was thrown out of the public bar of a local hotel for swearing in the presence of a lady. He claims there were red and white signs all over the bar reading: "No women or children allowed in this bar."

★ ★ ★

Increasing number of* young men from Altona and Laverton are attending the jiu jitsui classes held at Footscray YMCA four nights a week. And no wonder, the instructor, Graeme Rennie, is the third best in the world.

★ ★ ★

Good to see that Altona Council still continues with its wonderful policy of inviting guests to council meetings on a regular basis. Last week the guests were members of Altona Workingmen's Club, little athletes Stephen Smith, Anthony Clement and Stephen Clement and the Altona Primary School girl's under-13 swimming team.

★ ★ ★

A few laughs were raised at the council meeting last week when councillors came to the item on their agenda which dealt with a request by the Altona marching girls. The girls want to practice somewhere other than opposite the hockey field. Apparently there is chaos every Saturday afternoon when the hockey umpire blows his whistle, the girls stop marching and when the marching girls blow theirs, all the hockey games stop.

PRICES DROP AT SEDDON

Bonanza bargains are the order of the day in Seddon all next week.

Traders have let their hair down and slashed prices on many items to inject life into that sleepy shopping centre.

The bartain drive has been organised by the newly-formed chamber of commerce and is to take place in Victoria and Charles streets.

Bunting has been laid on and trees and shubs will line the pavements.

Ample parking is available.

Shops participating in the monster sale will have "price chop shop" window banners and in store bargains will have a price chop sticker.

Apart from offering these super-bargains, traders have also arranged an enormous amount of valuable free prizes

A purchase at any chop shop is sufficient to win the customer a prize.

Tickets will be handed out with the purchase and a huge public raffle will be held at the end o of the week.

Prizes include tools, electric shavers, lounge chairs, toasters and many other valuable goods.

ALTONA TEACHER WEDS

Altona North primary school teacher, the former Pauline Bradshaw, married recently.

She is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Bradshaw, of Amaranth Avenue, Altona North.

The groom is Alan Michael Kennedy.

He is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Kennedy, of Almond Avenue, Brooklyn.

The wedding was held at St. Andrew's Church, Footscray, and a reception followed at the Brooklyn Hall, Brooklyn.

Bridesmaids were Jan Deans, Linda Mackender, Gillian Walker and Alexander Taylor.

Best man was Michael Clancy and groomsmen were Bill Kennedy and Graham Hudson.

● Photograph by R. and R. Mudford Studios, Sunshine.

Bill Ross of the "Natural Thing" says:

Let's turn the 'ammo' into garden of Eden

Cherry Lake is not picturesque. A backdrop of angular steel chimneys, bulbous oil tanks and black clouds of smoke cannot in any way enhance a lake. And this is a fundamental problem besetting urban man — the beautification of what has become, in the hands of ruthless developers, a squalid, ugly environment.

Cherry Lake is an accident.

Because of the fact that the land was low-lying and flooded, people were not able to exploit it as "choice real estate."

This being so, we should thank nature and do our best to capitalise on its good fortune, even if the background is ugly.

At the same time we should be looking for the opportunity to create new parks in Altona.

To create a park positively requires initiative, foresight and human consideration for present and future generations.

The former Truganina explosives reserve, known affectionately as the "Ammo" to generations of Altonians, is an ideal site for a beautiful park.

Flanked by Kooringal golf course on one side and the natural boundary of the sea on the other, it has the perfect surroundings.

In such a locale, the creation of a garden would be no weak gesture.

Not like one of those city parks with a few trees being slowly killed by petrol fumes, a couple of criss-crossed asphalt paths and a fountain oozing brown slime.

The explosives reserve area has acres of ground which lend scope for planners with real imagination.

Even now, this land is ripe with promise.

Its mature trees and small lakes are constantly inhabited by migratory birds.

We must not spoil this natural area.

For too long we in the western suburbs have been asked to bear the main brunt of Victoria's industrialisation.

It is fair and just to suggest that we should be compensated.

This would be progress for us.

We do not want a progress that results in ugliness.

Step forward a councillor with the qualities to give parks to the citizens, and his praise will be sung.

Politics last in visits by Cairns

Most people in the Lalor federal electorate who visit their Federal MHR, Dr. Jim Cairns, do not talk about politics.

Dr. Cairns said this in a statement to the Star yesterday.

They discuss migration, social and pension problems.

"I see 20 to 30 people each Saturday morning," he said.

Dr. Cairns has visited shopping centres in his electorate on Saturday mornings for several months.

He travels from place to place in a white station sedan, with a banner bearing his name over the roof.

His schedule is:

First Saturday each month: Queen Street, Altona, 9 a.m.; Churchill Avenue, Braybrook, 10 a.m.; corner Duke Street and South Road, Braybrook, 10.30 a.m.; McIntyre Road, Sunshine North, 11 a.m.; and Albion State School, 11.30 a.m.

Second Saturday: Borrack Square, Altona North, 9 a.m.; Hampshire Road, Sunshine, 10 a.m.; Alfreida Street, St. Albans, 11 a.m.; Western Highway, Deer Park, 11.30 a.m.; Glengala Road shops, Sunshine West, 12 noon.

Third Saturday: Bladin Street, Laverton North, 9 a.m.; Laverton post office, 9.30 a.m.; Hoppers Crossing shops, 10.30 a.m.; Station Street, Werribee, 11 a.m.; Little River, 12 noon.

Dr. Cairns has an office at 7 Sun Crescent, Sunshine.

Gaoled after death smash

One of five people killed in an accident last year which resulted in two youths each being sentenced last week to three years' imprisonment, was the daughter of a former Altona North couple.

She was Mrs. Lynette Heinrich, 19, of Portland, who had been married for only five weeks before her death, at Portland last November.

Mrs. Heinrich was the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dixon, formerly of Windsor Crescent, Altona North.

Mr. Dixon is a journalist with the Mail and was for several years the Mail's Altona Council roundsman.

Sentenced were Jeffrey Robert Allan, 18 and Geoffrey Stephen Toye, also 18, both of Portland.

Judge Francis ruled in the County Court at Warrnambool they serve a minimum of 18 months.

He cancelled their driving licences for two years.

Mrs. June Crofts, president of the Altona district hospital ladies' auxiliary presents hospital board president Bob Stringer with a cheque for $1750 during the hospital's annual ball at the Fiesta reception centre last Friday.

Hospital ladies give $1750

The large attendance included the Mayor of Altona, Cr. Pat Lynch and his wife, several other councillors, the hospital's board of management, members of the ladies' auxiliary and the newly appointed town clerk, Mr. Sid Fell.

Cr. Crofts received the guests and thanked all patrons for their attendance. A special thank-you was reserved for hospital secretary, Mrs. Collen McGraw.

The Fiesta had been tastefully decorated by the ladies and the staff in their new uniforms added to the success of the evening.

The excellent dance orchestra proved to be another enjoyable feature.

Mr. Stringer said the money received from the ladies' auxiliary would be used towards equipment for the hospital's new extensions.

Railways plan unisex tickets

"Unisex" weekly tickets will be introduced by the Victorian Railways from July 2.

Not that that's the name to be printed on the thousands of weekly tickets issued regularly.

And it's not a new offshoot of women's lib.

It means that the present system of separate weekly tickets for men and women will be abandoned and only one type of ticket issued.

The Railways Commissioners said yesterday that in the 1880s, when workmen's railway tickets were introduced to Victoria, only the husband of the family worked.

But it was now the accepted custom for both the husband and wife to work.

The commissioners now believed the distinction between men and women for ticket purposes was unwarranted, a spokesman said.

The change would cut the cost of printing and ease the handling of tickets by railway staff.

The new tickets would be phased in gradually from July 2, as existing tickets were sold.

Until the old stocks were used, they would be issued, but not according to the travellers' sex.

Neither men nor women should be offended if they received what appeared to be the wrong ticket, the spokesman said.

Festival

St. Albans Church of England, in Melrose Street, will celebrate its patronal festival next Sunday.

All congregations at the Parish will join to celebrate the festival and share in fellowship at morning tea.

Linda takes march prize

Linda Clarke, leader of Altona youth club's Amethyst marching girls team, won a sash for best leader in her grade at the Mildura marching competition.

The team won silver medals for coming second in the championship and second in the aggregate.

Over the past season it has won 23 medals and two leader sashes.

The Amethysts will continue to contest the midget section and Ambassadors will contest the junior section.

The girls are looking for old marching boots for practice and anyone kind enough to make these available should ring 398 3568.

Val's Column

Hello girls,

"Oh my goodness, I'm going bald!" Someone in your family said that this week? Combing out handfuls of hair? Don't worry, it isn't only you, we all are lately.

Look closely at your scalp, see all the new hairs from about half an inch long to two inches long. These are the replacements.

No doubt your scalp is dry and even irritable too. The new growth is drawing off a lot of nourishment. Replace this with Flex by Revlon.

This giant tube lasts and lasts. There are many uses. Right now you could distribute a little all over your scalp, leave it for a while to soak in. Wash away the excess. Marvellous for dry scalps, and very beneficial to limp, lifeless hair.

To use as a creme rinse, just mix a teaspoonful in eight ounces warm water and pour over.

If you are retouching your tint or bleach, protect the ends first with a little Flex pinched into the ends.

Then of course because it is so close to your natural scalp oils, it is a natural to use as a daily dressing. Apply ever so little and comb through.

This brings me to remind all that have flaky dandruff that you could change for now to ZP11 dressing. After shampooing with your dandruff shampoo ZP11 apply ZP11 dressing — now you have all week medicinal care to end your dandruff worries.

If you like loose flowing hair — but need dandruff control — come in and ask for ZP11 liquid dressing. Two or three times a week just sprinkle a little of this non-oily liquid into the scalp — let it clear away that dandruff until your next ZP11 shampoo. Remember — ask for ZP11. LIQUID DRESSING. It is new.

If you are scratching your head for another reason — that present for uncle George, or cousin Joan, stop worrying. Call and see us. We have an extensive range of gifts for any member of your family. Compare prices with elsewhere — we can promise you will return to us.

Amcal buy direct! So there is no middle man. The only other person is you!

Bye.

Touring with Mobil

Entries for the 1972 Mobil Youth Travel Awards close on June 23.

The awards-there is one for each State and each is worth $2000 — will be made later this year to senior secondary students to enable them to take a three-week conducted tour of Australia early next January.

The students will tour many centres of development in mining, industry, agriculture and tourism.

Award winners will be selected on the basis of their general knowledge, appreciation of some of the problems facing Australia on national and international level, and personal involvement in activities in and out of school.

In the intial selection, one student will be chosen to represent his or her school. Then follows an area selection and finally selection of the student to represent his or her State.

The State winners will meet in Melbourne in January, for the beginning of the chaperoned tour.

The school of the State winner will receive a book order for $200.

Application forms are available from school principles.

TPI CARDS

An encouraging group of 67 members took part in the card game at the last meeting of the TPI social club.

Mrs. G. Taylor took off the main prize for the ladies.

The gent's prize went to Mrs. R. Harris.

Next card afternoon will be held at the Manchester Unity Hall, Footscray, at 1.30 on June 29.

Members extend a "get well quick" message to all those ill at home and in hospital.

Former reporter hits fight game

A former boxing reporter who is now crusading against the sport says of present day boxing: "How the mighty have fallen".

Mr. Herbert Mishael says this in a letter to the Editor.

He describes boxing today as . . . "the spectacle of a couple of pugs wading into one another before a few hundred boozy fight fans in suburban pubs . .

Here is his letter:

"When I was reporting from ringside, crowds flocked in their thousands to watch pugs trying to belt the daylights out of each other.

"I saw Jack Carroll fight the Dutchman, van Klavareen, before a crowd of 25,000 which endured the pouring rain to see the contest.

"Now the boxing promoters have been reduced to staging fights in local pubs. How the mighty have fallen!

"This trend in the boxing business fully justifies the words of scorn which Paul Gallico, famous author of The Snow Goose and founder of the world-renowned Golden Glove Amateur Boxing Tournament, poured on the game.

"I reproach myself when I recall that I invented and started that tournament and by glamorising and publicising a useless, dangerous sport, I was responsible for hundreds of young men becoming professional fighters.

"If there is a chapter in my life I would care to cancel out it is this one. I did it in the name of sport and I regret it, for today I believe that boxing amateur or professional, was, is, and always will be, a low, tawdry, seedy, greedy game.

"The spectacle of a couple of pugs wading into each other before a few hundred boozy fight fans in suburban pubs is a far cry from the high-falutin' rhetoric used by some suburban councillors to justify fighting as the noble and manly art of self defence.

"What is noble or manly about such a degrading 'entertainment'?

"Driven off television (except for one station) and dealt heavy body blows in the youth clubs and town halls, the fight game has retreated to suburban pubs.

"Why does the Victorian Licensing Commission permit the use of hotels for such purposes?"

Jaycees look for members

President of the Williamstown Jaycees, Mr. Ted. Williams, has extended an invitation to any young man who wishes to become a member of the organisation.

Mr. Williams points out that the Jaycees' programme covers such areas as management and organisational skills, human behavior, and community involvement.

He adds that these activities, together with discussions, visits and seminars, lead to a high standard of personal development.

Any young man interested in joining should contact secretary Mark Cuni on 391 2211, or publicity officer Ciprian Corva on 398 3265 after hours.

WATSON TO TACKLE CALDER IN RENAULT 12

Renault's rally champion Bob Watson expects to be behind the wheel of a brand new, more powerful car for Calder's June 25 rallycross meeting.

The car will be a specially built, super lightweight 160 horsepower R12 model now being built-up in Renault's Richmond competitions department by development engineer Enzo Dozzi.

His R8 Gordini rallycross car used for the past two seasons has been a regular winner and has offered the only real challenge to Harry Firth's Holden dealer team supercharged Torana beating the 300 horsepower "beast" several times.

But with about 25 brake horsepower more, wider wheels and fatter tyres, similar weight and even better handling, Watson is confident that the 12 could be the car to beat.

The only question is whether the new 12 will be ready in time to make the Calder meeting because Renault's heavy rally programme which included producing the BP rally winning Peugeot 504 has taken a toll on development time.

Said Watson: "When the new car is ready I will take it out to Calder and put it through its paces. If I am happy it will get the green light, if not we will dust off the old R8 and run that again."

The new rallycross car started life on Renault's Heidelberg production line as a standard 12 model.

But it was ear-marked for rallycross at this stage and delivered to the competition department with no trim, body panels or undersealing—just engine, transmission and suspension.

The suspension has now been brought up to 12 Gordini standard by altering the shock absorbers and springs and Enzo Dozzi is modifying a Renault 16 TS engine to Gordini specifications.

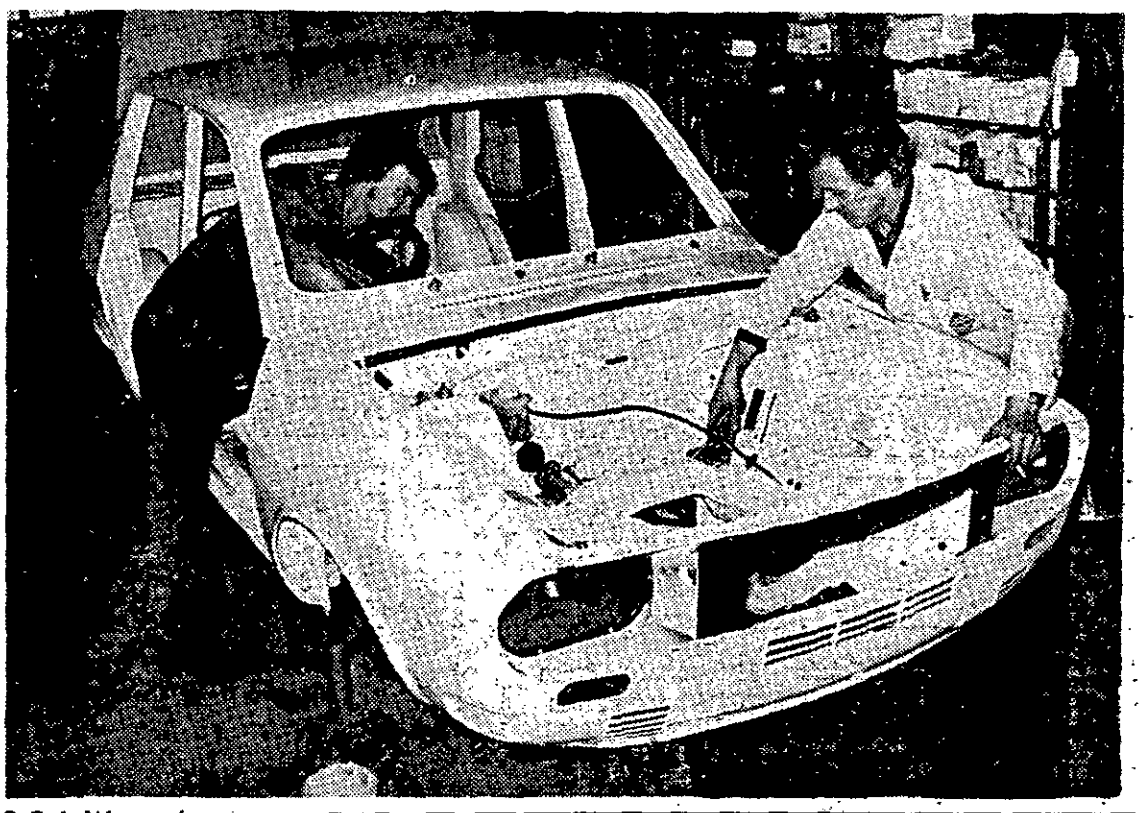

This includes enlarging capacity from 1565cc to 1596, fitting a wilder camshaft and modifying the cylinder head.

A four speed modified Renault 12 gearbox is being used — the five speeds of the Gordini box are not needed for rallycross — and a lower overall final drive ratio will be fitted.

As a limited slip differential is not yet available in France for the Gordini 12, Dozzi is planning to lock the standard diff so that both front wheels will drive together for best traction.

This idea was originally introduced to rallycross by mechanic Rick Scott who modified Michael Browning's Mini Cooper S and has been popular among drivers of the "bricks" since.

Traffic officers' report

Altona's traffic officer, Mr. J. W. Hansen, made the following report to the recent general purposes committee of Altona Council:

● Derelict cars:
Approximately 24 derelict cars were found and reported in Altona during the past two months. Most of these have been removed from the streets.

● Bicycles:
Cycling on footpaths, particularly in shopping areas, has noticeably decreased following a constant vigil of the situation.

● Horses:
Owners of horses are keeping clear of the shopping areas, and are tethering their animals in open vacant blocks out of vehicle and pedestrian areas.

The children are cooperating extremely well, and in spite of a bad name previously earned, I think they shtuld be commended for the improvement to encourage them to further improve their behavior.

At the northern end of Hammond Street/Grieve Parade, a riding school is operating in the paddocks. It is run by an adult person on an hourly hire basis to any person requiring a horse.
No lessons are given, and the riders are permitted to take the horse on the roadways without being taught the proper control of the animal. This is the reason for the damage to the median strips in the Grieve Parade North areas.

The regular one child/one horse owner is no problem whatsoever at the moment.

● Traffic and parking infringements:
Traffic parking infringements are very few, only three to four have required to be served with a notice.
Traffic co-operation is also improved, possibly due to the motor cycle making it possible for me to be in several areas, unexpectedly, in the same day. Numerous cars are still parking on nature strips at night, also semi-trailers are occasionally parking overnight.

● Rubbish Dumping:
Litter dumping is still continuing and seems to be carried out after sundown.

Hospital honors Dr. Louis Joel

A social afternoon was held in honor of Dr. Louis Joel, who recently resigned from the committee of Williamstown Hospital after a 27-year membership.

He was presented with a silver candelabra as a token of the committee's esteem and appreciation.

Born in Altona, Dr. Joel has lived in the district all his life.

He was associated with the hospital almost since his graduation 40 years ago.

Dr. Joel said he was proud to serve at Melbourne's oldest suburban hospital. (Williamstown Hospital opened in 1893.)

Members of the committee were hosts at the afternoon.

Guests included the manager, Mr. N. W. Maxwell, Mrs. Maxwell; members of the honorary medical staff, as well as former members, Dr. Leo Gurry, Dr. Bill Granger, with their wives; the matron, Miss Short, Mr. Evans and senior members of the nursing staff.

They were received by hospital president, Mr. L. G. Caithness, and Mrs. Caithness.

Life governorship certificates were presented to members of the honorary medical staff, who have given many years of service to the hospital.

They include honorary consultants Mr. Norman Harry, Mr. John Colquhoun, Mr. Henry McCoy, Mr. James Mortenson, Mr. Michael Shaw, Mr. Alwyn Long, Mr. Sol Brand, Mr. Colin McRae, Mr. Brian Entwistle, Mr. Russell Langley and honorary medical officers, Drs. Keith Harrison, Desmond Brophy, Anthony Huang and David Middleton.

The president spoke of Dr. Joel's contribution to the committee. His glowing remarks were echoed by Dr. D. D. Coutts, past-president, and by Dr. J. G. H. Refshauge.

Dr. Joel is still in active practice and remains a member of the honorary medical staff of the hospital.

The curtain rises

by Thisbe

The Pumpkin Players production of The Lion In Winter has been reviewed by the press.

The excellent notices will undoubtedly give the production that special glow that goes with the smell of success.

Gary Metcalf, well-known Williamstown actor, gave a distinguished performance as Henry I of England.

Ellis Ebell's mature performance as the young King Phillip will please the many people who have followed his many roles with various groups.

The rest of the cast, although not well known at Williamstown, are very experienced with other groups. The names — Brenda Addie, Murray Nazewinkel, Anne Sutherland, David Bradshaw and Nicholas Keslensky — will be added to the many new players (to Williamstown) who have recently played on our stage.

Nicholas Keslensky is a new member of the Williamstown Little Theatre who has been associated with Alan Money's Muse Theatre. His performances on July 5-July 15 at 3-4 Albert Street, will be his first performance with the Williamstown Little Theatre.

Apart from the excellent acting and production, the smooth technical running of this play with many scenes, was highly praised by the reviewer.

The professional quality of settings and the beautiful costumes will make Graham Murphy's production of James Goldman's Lion in Winter a thrililng entertainment, interesting enough to take you away from the fire on a winter's night.

Bookings open E. S. Marr's, 49 Ferguson Street, on Monday.

Moratoriums are "mostly peaceful"

Moratoriums were by and large peaceful demonstrations against the horrors of the Vietnam war, a meeting at St. Albans was told last week.

This statement was made by Dr. Cairns, MHR (Labor, Lalor) at a meeting of A.L.P. branches in the Lalor electorate.

Few arrests had been made at moratoriums in Melbourne, he said.

"There have been only 18 arrests in all the demonstrations of 1970, 1971 and 1972," he said.

"Eleven were in one small demonstration in the evening.

"During the big May 8 demonstration there were no arrests at all, out of 70,000 people."

Dr. Cairns said that in various demonstrations people who believed some kind of violence should be used were included.

Before one demonstration he had believed there would be brawls if something was not done.

● Peaceful

"I felt obliged to see things were done peacefully. I appreciate that violence cannot be accepted in the Australian community," he told delegates to the meeting.

On May 8, 1970, police had decided to block the street.

They had told him there would be lot of trouble and he had asked them to block side streets, but not immediately in front of the march.

"They did this and we were able to talk to the crowd and keep it under control. A few broke away from the barricades," Dr. Cairns said.

Gains enjoyed by everyone had been won by such actions as those of demonstrators in the past.

These had included the Chartist movement in England last century.

Some things Labor had won for the people had been achieved in part by demonstrations, Dr. Cairns added.

POP STAR — with Ron Coleman

Altona has launched yet another pop phenomenon.

And Willie Russell's group is probably heaviest yet.

The 4-man group calls itself Poltergeist, but, after seeing the boys practise, I've dubbed them "Wreckin' Crew", mainly because of their heavy sound and the condition of Willie's drum kit, which he assures me was not bought from the wreckers and has not been in a car crash.

As for your opinions, you can make them soon, when the group appears at the Werribee Dance.

The ever - popular Michael Rudd will appear at the Werribee dance this Sunday night with his group Murtceps (Spectrum spelt backwards) and blues group Terraplane.

A psychedelic light show and guest artists will be other features of the dance.

A free bus will leave from Pier Street, Altona, at 8 p.m., stopping at Laverton and Hoppers Crossing on the way.

★ ★ ★

Getting back to Willie Russell's group, Poltergeist, again, they certainly are weird.

Last Sunday they practised in a boxing ring.

Would have made a good photo, chaps.

★ ★ ★

And yet another reminder that the one and only Daddy Cool will be appearing at Werribee on Sunday, July 9.

Melbourne "boogie" group Benefit will not forget their recent appearance at the Werribee dance in a hurry.

The lead guitar man forgot his guitar and all pleas failed to produce a substitute from the other groups appearing.

But luck was on Benefit's side. The group managed to buy or borrow a Canora electric guitar from a milk bar across the road.

And when Benefit had finished playing the crowds were clamoring for more. The group was far better than most people expected.

★ ★ ★

One group to write down in the black book is It Flew Away.

These musicians are as unusual as their name suggests, but brilliant in their own right, nevertheless.

★ ★ ★

By now it's probably stale news to many people that pop star Johnny Farnham is racing a horse in partnership with his manager, Darryl Sambell.

The name of the horse is Seascape and it will be racing again soon after a spell.

It has good breeding and won a couple of races under its previous ownership.

WATSON AT CALDER IN RENAULT 12

(from page 5)

Wide mag wheels fitted with big section Dunlop SP44 winter tread tyres will be used and Watson expects the 12 to have even better traction than his R8 through the muddy parts.

The only real question could be how well the car gets off the starting line in comparison, but the wider tyres and extra power may cancel out the front wheel drive disadvantage.

Other modifications to be made to the 12 will include the fitting of a sturdy sump guard, a roll cage, a small two gallon fuel tank, a two gallon water reservoir for the windscreen washers, and a single seat for Watson.

Calder's rallycross meeting starts at 11.30 a.m.

The track is 16 miles from Melbourne on the Calder Highway.

Moves to alter traffic flow

Werribee Shire Council is making submissions to the Country Roads Board with a view to altering the flow of traffic through the Werribee shopping centre.

Main suggestion is to divert all truck traffic along Synnot Street.

An allied proposal is to close Wedge Street between Watton and Synnot streets to lessen hazards at the intersection of the Synnot and Wedge streets' intersection.

Relocation of the taxi stand in Station Street is suggested to overcome what is now considered an illegal situation with taxis reversing into and out of centre road parking bays.

Portion of taxi stand may be located in front of the Palais Theatre.

However, talks with taxi operators will govern the ultimate plan for their location.

Prohibition of "U" turns in Watton Street is an overdue proposition and may be introduced between Duncan's Road and Bridge Street.

Relocating the centre line in Watton Street five feet north would provide greater ease for traffic parking on the angle on the south side.

Road marking the intersection of Watton Street and Duncan's Road would help simplify traffic turning.

Doing what you can with what you've got

This is the title of a residential conference organised jointly by the Council of Adult Education and the Activities Office of Melbourne University.

Effective community organising and a growing awareness that ordinary people should play a more participatory role in the making of decisions which affect their lives has become a feature of all levels of local government.

Peter Hollingworth of the Brotherhood of St. Laurence and Mr. Colin Benjamin, director of Welfare Services at the Sunshine City Council will lead discussions and working groups on such topics as definitions and history of community organising, the mechanics of reform and protest and the need to develop new forms of political actions which give effective voice to the individual, minorities and the disorganised.

The conference will be opened by an address from Mr. Colin Cave, director of the Council of Adult Education. The venue is Mountain Lodge, Marysville andth e cost is $25, which includes accommodation, all meals, lectures, discussions and resource notes.

Brochures and enrolment forms are available from the Council of Adult Education, 256 Flinders Street, Melbourne. Phone 63 4231.

SUBURBAN PRESS closest to the people

ALTONA CITY IN 30-GOAL WIN

In a power-packed performance, Altona City combined brilliantly to swamp Maidstone at Scovell Reserve last Saturday.

It is difficult to find fault with any aspect of the Vikings' performance, as they were nothing short of sensational.

Each and every player contributed adequately.

The back line was solid at all times and when it was under pressure the ball was repelled stylishly.

The ruck-play by Altona was perfect, contesting was continuous and the determination shown by all was found, by Maidstone, to be insurmountable.

Handball was applied intelligently and proved to be of great benefit to the Vikings' pacy play-on style.

All players when under pressure, delivered the ball to team mates in a better position.

When the ball went to ground it was either pushed forward or tapped out to the Altona player who was always coming through to take advantage of this type of play.

Ron Schwabe, at full-forward, marked brilliantly, created many opportunities for team mates and kicked 10 goals.

Stephen Chatfield was on fire around the ground and particularly up forward, where he booted seven goals.

Gary Munro, at centre half-forward, played himself into top form with a memorable display of intelligent football and creative disposal.

Marty Crump put in 100 minutes of non-stop power football, leaving opposition players behind him as he cut a swathe through the Maidstone defence.

Derek York controlled the ruck duels with apparent ease and when moved to centre half-back he dazzled the opposition with telling clearing dashes and strong marks.

Mal Tisdale controlled traffic at the pivot, highlighting his efforts with a couple of screamers.

Robin Morgan outpaced and outthought all comers on the half-forward line.

Gordon Wilson impressed with strong play and courageous ball getting.

Glen Morgan was dashing on the wing, bringing team mates into play with creative handball and using his blistering pace to great advantage.

Final scores: Altona City 34. 27 (231) d. Maidstone 4.4 (28).

Goalkickers: R. Schwabe 10, S. Chatfield 7, A. Walgers 3, G. Munro, 3, G. Wilson 3, Mal Tisdale 2, R. Morgan 2, G. Ewen 2 R. Ewen 1, I McLeod 1.

Second Division

Facing up to the tallest opposition they have met this season, the Vikings humbled second team Brooklyn in no uncertain manner at Grant Reserve on Sunday.

Using their skill and team work to great advantage, Altona City's talented ambassadors cut the opposition to threads.

Brooklyn, never looked like troubling City's solid defence.

Many players on the backline had their first opportunity to show their ability, which they did with poise and finesse.

The most illustrious feature of this match was the Vikings' play-on game.

Handball used intelligently, and perfect passing was also a feature.

Peter Thompson, returning to the side after a long lay-off, dominated at full-forward, with well timed leads, strong marking and accurate kicking.

Paul Itier performed meritoriously on the ball, and his marking and creative handball sparked off innumerable attacks.

Roy Scarff was a stalwart defender, charging through and relieving the pressure whenever required.

Gordon McColl performed with power and brilliance at centre half back.

David Berry pulled in some towering marks around the ground and brought his teamates into the play with creative handball.

Mick Oram was a penetrating half forward.

Stephen Stiles outclassed his opponents on the wing.

Goalkickers: P. Thompson 7, D. Brennan 2, P. Itier 2, S. Grainger 2, D. Berry 2.

Final scores: Altona City 15.9 (99) d. Brooklyn 3.10 (28).

Under 18

The under-18 side once again went down to Newport.

It has been narrowly beaten by this side on three occasions and luck has not been with it at any time.

Opening up brilliantly Altona City led Newport by seven goals at the first change, but lapsed after this, and finally went down by eight points.

David Marshall was clearly best man afield, producing a brilliant display of ruck work.

Other good players were, Mike Starcivic, Neil Henry, Alan Willett, Jock O'Connor, John Hampton, Cec Martin and Alan Moore.

The most significant aspect of this game was that these lads have the ability to succeed, but apparently do not have the dedication.

Coach, Geoff Ewen has vowed to eradicate any future signs of lethargy.

When this comes about, we will see the Viking under 18s at their best.

Under 16

Altona's performance left a lot to be desired against Laverton on Saturday morning.

Players were not sticking to position and constructive handball and backing up was non-existent.

Several of the Viking youngsters were inclined to perform as individuals instead as part of a team.

A lot of the blame for this would rest on the fact that the team was totally disorganised, due to the absence of several key position players, through injury and illness.

However, a team is only as strong as its weakest link, therefore the performance on the whole was below the standard it is capable of.

Don Hyett produced 100 minutes of courage and determination and Wayne Jones performed brilliantly, particularly when moved to the the centre.

Gary Sorrell relished his move to the ruck and played accordingly.

He was well supported by Glen Knight, who displayers the ideal temperament for success.

Glen Nicholls threw off the effects of a heavy cold and showed the way on innumerable occasions.

Young Greg Clark, the smaller of the Clarks, showed a positive desire to win the ball, irrespective of the size of his opponents.

Goalkickers: G. Sorrell 2, D. Hyett 2, D. Howard, M. Howard, S. Stafford, P. Mildenhall, D. Nicholls 1 each.

Close tussle till Centrals put heat on

Altona Centrals managed to scrape home against a determined Laverton team, last Saturday.

The game was a goal for goal affair, until the last few minutes of play. Then the Centrals put on the heat and tore away to an impressive 26 point win.

Laverton turned in a team performance, with backing up and handball all day.

Centrals played in sports and if they could put in 100 minutes of that sort of football, they would be a certainty to play in the grand final.

One player to put his heart into the game was Ian Laffey.

His determination in fighting for the ball and anticipation was a headache to his opponent.

Peter Rogash battled hard all day on a half back flank.

Once he gets the run of the ball he's a hard man to beat and he was well backed upon the other half back flank by Lindsay Crosswell.

Jim Cargill put in the usual good game that Centrals have come to expect from him. His strong marking and kick placement to his fellow forwards created many opportunities.

Another battler for Centrals was Bill Kennedy.

His pace and his splendid overhead marking for his size, makes him a valuable asset to Centrals.

Final scores: Centrals 12.16 (88) d. Laverton 8.14 (62).

Best: I. Laffey (2), P. Rogash, L. Crosswell, J. Cargill, W. Kennedy.

Other goal scorers: K. Murrell (3), R. Cole (2), J. Loft (2), D. Deahl (1), M. Lawrin (1), E. Jepson (1).

B Division

Centrals trailed all day to go down fighting at the hands of Yarraville United.

Yarraville showed teamwork a class above that of Centrals but Centrals' doggedness, spoiling, pressure tactics and superior kicking for goal always gave them a chance of snatching victory.

Don Kakosche was Centrals' best man afield.

Not only did he earn many kicks, but his beautiful disposal downfield gave Centrals much needed drive.

He was well supported by Bob Delaney on the wing.

This player is a sure chest mark and his pace gives him an edge on his opponent to keep the ball moving.

Barry Height again tried hard in the ruck and Alan Deans, although not doing so well in the ruck, regained his marking form around the ground.

George Lemnieszek at full forward, took some spectacular marks and did well for his first full game at full forward.

Murray Sayers played his heart out.

Final scores: Yarraville 14.21 (105) d. Centrals 10.7 (67).

Best: D. Kakosche, B. Delaney, L. Cooke 4, B. Height, A. Deans, G. Lemnieszek 2, M. Sayers 3.

Other goals scorer: A. Evans 1.
